

Core Focus

tsi-systems primary focus is to provide its customers with the expertise required to assist them in delivering IT solutions on time and within budget. To facilitate this, tsi-systems has developed a unique product offering that is able to service the end-to-end lifecycle of industry-specific business solutions, from development, through the relevant testing phases, into production and subsequent support. This product comprises a combination of best-of-breed applications complimented by expert consultancy.