

Services Overview

Being one of the leading providers of specialist software consultancy in Southern Africa, tsi-systems can assist organisations with any aspect of IT solution delivery. The spectrum of services provided encompasses project management, enterprise application architecture, design, implementation, testing and production support.

The company prides itself in employing the most highly skilled consultants the market has to offer to ensure that any service provided is of the highest calibre.